

Bridging Future Through Education

Supporting Ukrainian Refugee Students' Education in JAPAN

Seeking an opportunity to study abroad in JAPAN with extensive support?

Meikou Gakuen Senior High School, situated in Omuta City, Fukuoka Prefecture, Japan, stands as a new venue for education.

The "Bonds that protect the heaven's earth" will steadfastly support you. From bearing the expenses of travel and tuition to offering lifestyle assistance, we are dedicated to enhancing your experience in Japan to be more rewarding and seamless.

Contents of Support

- Schooling arrangements
- Expenses to be borne by:
  - Travel expenses to Japan
  - Meals & dormitory fees
  - School fees
  - Living expenses
  - Health & accident insurance fees
- Provided dormitories
- Ukrainian-speaking support

Application Overview

➤ Available Opportunities:

- Number of applicants: 3 students
- Duration: Typically, about one year.
  - * Depending on the situation or circumstances, we may consider shortening the duration (e.g., to six months)
  - * It is also possible to extend the duration by three years and aim to obtain graduation qualifications from a school in Japan. However, decisions will be based on study abroad interest and Japanese proficiency.

- Place of study: Meikou Gakuen

➤ Eligibility:

- Females eager to study in Japanese Catholic schools and to audit Japanese language learning.
- Ages 15-17 as of April 2024
- Ability to engage in basic conversation in English.
- Must adhere to Japanese laws and school & dormitory rules.

For more details, please contact the information below:

Organization	Yumenosya Foundation	Contact	Tatsuo Shirahama
Phone	+81-52-253-6669	Email	yumenosya@yumenosya.or.jp

Standing by You, Every Step of the Way. Supported by:

Yumenosya Foundation
Bonds that protect the heavenly earth

Polish Chamber of Commerce and Industry in Japan

Canossian Daughters of Charity JAPAN

Meikou Gakuen
Senior High School

Meikou Gakuen: Legacy of Educational Excellence

Meikou Gakuen Senior High School, located in Omuta City in Fukuoka Prefecture, Kyushu, is a distinguished Catholic school with a rich history and culture. The academy offers high-quality education to develop the individuals who contribute to society. Discover a supportive learning environment and vibrant student life through the academy's unique programs.

Dormitory for Life & Learning

Within the grounds of Meikou Gakuen, there is a student dormitory, setting the stage for your new life. A supportive environment for both learning and living.

Omuta: Kyushu's Cultural Jewel

Kyushu, in southwestern Japan, is an island with a rich history, nature, and Christian ties. Omuta City in southern Fukuoka thrived on coal mining and has many cultural and tourist sites.

Inquiry Desk

Organization	Yumenosya Foundation	Contact	Tatsuo Shirahama
Phone	+81-52-253-6669	Email	yumenosya@yumenosya.or.jp